JØRGEN RASMUSSEN
DESIGNER

As a newly graduate from the Royal Danish Academy of Fine Arts in 1955, Jørgen Rasmussen started his own studio together with his twin brother Ib. With a keen eye for functionality and simplicity Jørgen Rasmussen also proved to be an excellent designer, with the KEVI chair as his master piece. It was designed in 1958 and is based on one simple principle: The better you sit, the more you get done!

After architect Jørgen Rasmussen REINVENTED THE WHEEL in 1965 when he developed the double wheel caster, the demand for the KEVI chair exploded. The new double wheel caster made KEVI more manoeuvrable with less wear on floor surfaces. It was a great improvement for working conditions for many people.

The KEVI chair has set the scene across the world from universities in the UK to primary schools in Denmark and design offices in Japan. After 60 years on the market, the chair is still as relevant today as it was in 1958.

A CLASSIC CHAIR

The KEVI chair was designed in 1958 by Jørgen Rasmussen. In 2016, Engelbrechts introduced KEVI with four legs.
